

COMMUNIQUE

Over the past forty years, ONECA has delivered the Native Counsellor Training Program (NCTP) to over 476 First Nation graduates. We are proud of the impact we have had in all regions of Ontario and have received accolades from past graduates, leadership, and various institutions.

As 2017 marks the 40th year anniversary of the NCTP program, it is an opportune time to reflect on the strengths and challenges of the course and move forward in 2018 with an enriched and expanded program. This commitment to quality includes reviewing delivery method choices, course and curriculum revisions, and partnership and certification development options while adhering to the original mission and goal.

Conscious of the important role of the NCTP program in promoting valuable education counselling skills to support our students, the Board of ONECA continue to wholeheartedly support the continuation of the program in 2018.

Towards the end of January, 2018, NCTP registration will be open. This key date will also enable career professionals to take advantage of planning options for the 2018/2019 school calendar year.

In the meantime, if you are a past NCTP student, please help us plan accordingly by taking a short 10 minute survey:
