

ONECA PSE Fall Gathering

Picking up the Journey – Indigenous Education in a Changing Environment

Conference Program

November 1 – 3, 2022

Four Points by Sheridan, 1150 Wellington Road South, London, Ontario

Tuesday, November 1

7:30 - 8:30	Breakfast	Bristol B&C
8:30 – 9:00	Greetings, Opening Remarks, Review of Agenda	Bristol B&C
9:00 – 10:15	Keynote – Picking up the Journey - Indigenous Education in a Changing Environment, Dr. Sheila Coté Meek	Bristol B&C
	Aha Moments and Mystery Prizes	Bristol B&C
10:15 -10:30	Nutrition Break
10:30 – 12:00	The Way Forward in Indigenous Education (panel) – Julia Candlish, Chiefs of Ontario and Bernadette Wabi, Indigenous Services Canada	Bristol B&C
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch Break	Bristol B&C
1:00 – 2:30	The Way Forward in Indigenous Education (panel) – Carolyn Hepburn, Indigenous Peoples Education Council, Shylo Elmayan, Council of Ontario Universities Regional Reference Group on Aboriginal Education and the Indigenous Education Branch, Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities	Bristol B&C
2:30 – 2:45	Nutrition Break
3:00 – 4:30	Workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Navigating between the “Ship” and the “Canoe:” An Indigenous perspective for Indigenous student success in post-secondary, Dr. Darren Thomas - Indigenous Wellness Framework/Wellness Assessment, Mary Deleary - Mental Health within Indigenous Communities Post-COVID 19 and Enaahdig Healing Lodge & Learning Centres Services, Chenoa LaCaille, Ryan Nicholson and Sheri J.Wirsching 	Bristol B&C Lynden Manchester

Wednesday, November 2

7:30 - 8:30	Breakfast	Bristol B&C
8:30 – 8:45	Greetings, Recap Day 1, Review of Agenda	Bristol B&C
8:45 – 10:15	Student Survey Results re: Careers in the Food and Beverage Industry – Lorraine Pitawanakwat, ONECA	Bristol B&C

10:15 -10:30	Nutrition Break
10:30 – 12:00	Workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gizhewaatisiwin (Kindness) – Essential for Success, Stephanie Stevens - Psychoeducational Assessments: Why they are important and how to access them, Beth Pollock - Supporting Indigenous Students, for Educators and Influencers, Roxane Shawana - Healing, Wellness and Meditation, Michelle Thomas 	Bristol B&C Manchester Bristol A Lynden
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch Break
1:00 – 2:30	Workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Why Indigenous Community Research Matters, Rick Monture - Healing, Wellness and Meditation, Michelle Thomas - The Way Forward: Responding to Community, Sara General - Supporting Indigenous Student Transitions - Holly Groome 	Bristol A Lynden Bristol B&C Manchester
2:30 – 2:45	Nutrition Break
2:45 – 4:30	Workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Trauma-Informed Practice/Building Resilience, Stephanie Stevens - The Ontario Student Access Program, Hannah Vanderbosch - Reflective Practice, Sheryl Ann Third - Indigenous Helper Wellness: Building Skills for Self-Care, Louis Busch 	Bristol A Manchester Bristol B&C Lynden
6:00 – 10:00	Dinner and Entertainment with Anishinaabe Comedian Ryan McMahon	Plenary

Thursday, November 3

7:30 - 8:30	Breakfast
8:30 – 9:00	Greetings, Recap Day 2, Review of Agenda	Plenary
9:00 – 10:30	Utilizing the Survey Results: ONECA 2022 Survey of Indigenous Post-Secondary Students, Lead Facilitator, Karihwakeron Tim Thompson	Plenary and breakout rooms
10:30 -10:45	Nutrition Break
10:45 – 12:15	Utilizing the Survey Results: ONECA 2022 Survey of Indigenous Post-Secondary Students, Lead Facilitator, Karihwakeron Tim Thompson	Plenary and breakout rooms
12:15 – 1:00	Lunch Break
1:00 – 2:30	Facilitated Network Sessions – Good news, creative solutions, challenges and opportunities	Plenary
2:30 – 2:45	Nutrition Break
2:45 -3:30	Evaluations, Next Steps, Closing	Plenary