

INSTRUCTORS for the NATIVE COUNSELLOR TRAINING PROGRAM

The ONTARIO NATIVE EDUCATION COUNSELLING ASSOCIATION (ONECA) is accepting applications for the following teaching positions: Synchronous Learning Online.

Counselling Practicum & Theory – Parts I, II

Summary:

ONECA has been training First Nation Education Counsellors since 1977 and ensures that the curriculum being delivered is current and responds to the needs of Indigenous Communities. Instructors will be provided with the course materials, lesson plans and texts. Under the direction of the NCTP Coordinator the instructors will be responsible for teaching the curriculum as set out by the course outlines.

Summary of Work to be Performed:

Provide Synchronous Learning online instruction.

Online Synchronous Delivery

Fall Term – September 12 – November 4th, 2022 Online Synchronous Delivery

Winter Term – November 14th, 2022 – January 19th, 2023- Online Synchronous Delivery

Spring Term - January 30th – March 31st, 2023 - Online Synchronous Delivery

Summer Term - April 11th – June 8th, 2023 - Online Synchronous Delivery

All school year breaks are observed.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Counselling and Theory Part I

This course is designed to provide the foundation of the techniques used in the helping relationship. Learners will have the opportunity to develop a personal style of connecting with members of the community. Learners will also be introduced to various topics relating to helping students, families and others with specific needs.

Counselling and Theory Part II

This course is designed to further explore the techniques utilized in the helping relationship. Learners will have the opportunity to expand their approaches to healing and counselling within an Indigenous worldview. Combining theory and experience are the focus of this course in part 2.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching and teaching-related responsibilities may include but are not limited to: course outline development and delivery inclusive of lectures, grading, mid-term evaluations and final evaluations/reviews; including responsibility for health & safety and meeting academic and curricular requirements and deadlines.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- The successful applicant should have a terminal degree in a relevant discipline
- Understanding and working knowledge of Indigenous peoples and communities
- Experience with online teaching with an Adult Education Focus
- Experience teaching at the post secondary level is considered an asset, equivalent relevant experience will be considered
- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills
- Excellent organization skills
- Demonstrated leadership and experience promoting a respectful and inclusive work and learning environment for students, staff, and faculty
- Experience using online teaching platform
- Good understanding and able to use Brightspace platform

Applications should include: a letter of intent stating the candidate's interests in the areas of teaching by identifying relevant courses above and preferences for terms, CV, and 3 references from previous employers.

Email your application to: Roxane Manitowabi- Executive Director at oneca@oneca.com

Deadline for applications May 30, 2022 or until the positions are filled.