

FAQ's –Native Counselling & Wellness Program

Who is eligible for the program?

This program is designed for those working in the field of social services, addiction, student support, counseling, health, education including teachers, educational leads, school boards, and residential school survivors.

Why should I take a Native Counselling & Wellness Program?

- Professional Development
- Personal growth & development
- Traditional teachings
- Skill enhancement and certification
- Ongoing lifelong learning
- As a start to further pursue the NCTP Program

How do I register?

Registration can be done on-line as well as, fax and/or mail.

Where do I find the application?

The application is located on the ONECA website and can be downloaded.

What is the deadline to register?

June 2nd is the deadline to register.

What is the location for the Program?

The program will be held on-site at Laurentian University in Sudbury.

What is the length of the Program – specific dates?

The program is four weeks and will be held from July 13-August 7, 2015.

What are the tuition costs for the program?

Tuition $1,500

Textbooks/Supplies $300

Accommodations $600

Parking $50

If I am a residential school survivor how can I access the personal educational credits?

You can apply for a $3000 personal credit or transfer it to a family member by calling 1-866-343-1858 or 1-877-627-7027. You can also email the IRSPersonalCredits@srawco.ca. The deadline has been extended until March 9, 2015.

If I have any further questions who should I contact?

If you have any further questions please contact the ONECA Office at (705) 692-2999 or visit the website at www.oneca.com

